Q: First time player or new to PBYS?

A: You must provide proof of age. A copy of a birth certificate or a passport (must have English translation on the actual document). We have to keep it so please bring only a copy! We will also ask for any allergies, or medical conditions.

Q: What about age groups?

A: Age divisions are open to players UP TO a certain age. For example: a player turning 14 before 8/1 must advance to the next division (in this case, U-15/16, a dual age division). A player turning 14 on or after 8/1 may continue to play U-14.

Q: When will my child be able to play youth soccer?

A: A player must be 4 prior to August 1 to play U5. To play in spring, must be 4 by March 1. This applies to U-5's ONLY.

Q: What is the difference in age groups for skills or abilities?

A: The following is a brief description of the 'training ladder' being developed at PBYS:

- U5/6 soccer is a form of pre-soccer with the emphasis on fun. Sometimes called 'bumble bee ball' There's lots of running and jumping and kicking and running. It's a lot of fun to watch.
- U7/8 begins introducing basic ball mastery skills in the form of special practice games and activities. Simple, easy games develop simple, easy to learn skills.
- U9/10 builds on the basics with a slightly broader range of 'touch' skills. Teamwork begins to be a small Factor. Players begin to develop confidence in their abilities and try out their skills or a few new moves During games.
- U11/12 continues to expand on the 'good habits' learned in previous seasons. Learning to shoot, Juggling techniques and moves is a big part of training. Teamwork is becoming more of a factor.
- U13/14 emphasizes teamwork along with a range of more advanced ball mastery skills. Player's start to Learn that the game is really played with their brains. This often comes as a big surprise to everyone!
- U15/16 concentrates on teamwork and fast attack small group tactics. Skills training continue in earnest as players begin to hone and take pride in their 'personal moves'.
- U19 is all about teamwork, fast attack tactics and game strategy. Players at this age level are often 'hard-core' and have been playing 10-15 years. Most will be playing to stay in shape for their high school teams. Some will be on their way to college teams next season.

Q: What is the refund policy?

A: Players dropping out will be entitled to a refund of registration fees as follows:

100%--Prior to formation of teams – (including late fees if applicable)

50%--After formation of teams (between rostering and first game) -

0% --After season begins (first game)
